Parking in Historic Folsom

Folsom
Historic District
Association

For Visitors/Customers

- All public parking in the Historic District is free, including the parking structure at Leidesdorff/Reading
- Please comply with posted time limits; Folsom Police will be enforcing parking regulations
- The lower levels of the new parking structure are reserved for Historic District visitors
- Light rail parking is discouraged outside of the two park & ride lots located next to the light rail station
- Consider alternatives to driving, such as light rail, bus, biking, walking or car-pooling

For Employees/Merchants

- Please park in designated long-term parking
- Leave on-street parking for customers and visitors
- The upper level of the new parking structure is recommended for free employee parking, as are spaces in the Traders Lane and Riley/Scott parking lots
- Consider alternatives to driving to work such as light rail, bus, biking, walking or carpooling
