FOLSOM PRESENTS

Arts. Culture. Life!

FOLSOMPRESENTS.COM

Folsom Patrons of the Arts

The Patrons of the Arts are dedicated to promoting and growing the arts in Folsom. Their mission is to Advocate * Educate * Appreciate the Arts!
Visit their new website – FolsomPresents.com – for a complete guide to Arts and entertainment in Folsom! See page 46 for more information about the Patrons.

Folsom Arts & Cultural Commission

Meets 2nd Thursday of each month as needed in the City Council Chambers
View agenda online at www.folsom.ca.us – click on commissions

Folsom Historic District

On the second Saturday of the month, Historic Folsom is vibrant and alive with street performers, an art walk, special tastings, fashion shows, live music and more. Each Second Saturday Art Walk is a little different so make sure to visit every month, staring at 5 p.m. Most businesses offer Second Saturday discounts and specials, so make sure to print out the monthly program.
Visit: www.historicfolsom.org

Folsom Arts Association

They host of variety of events including workshops for artists and monthly meetings for visual artists at 48 Natoma, at 6 p.m. on the 3rd Thursday of every month.
For more info go to www.folsomarts.org
May 17 – Kaaren Poole • June 21 – Howard Rees
July 19 – Rhonda Egan • Aug. 16 – Tracy Lewis • Sept. 20 – Jim Marxen

Take pART in the arts

Great Art for our Great Community!

You can do your pART by adding a voluntary donation when you pay your utility bill.

Round up or add a $1, $5, $10 or more next to the line that says, "Take pART in the ARTs. My Donation___ ."
Funds support Concerts in the Park, the Gallery at 48 Natoma, public art, and more!
Or mail your donation to:
Take pART in the ARTs
48 Natoma Street, Folsom CA 95630

Questions? 355-7279

Community Arts Organizations

Three Stages Theaters at Folsom Lake College
A tremendous lineup of theater, dance, and music await you, including Jeffrey Siegel in May and Frankie Avalon in June!
www.threestages.net.

Folsom Lake Symphony Orchestra
June 2 – Summer Symphony at the Movies
An evening of award winning music from the silver screen including the Star Wars Suite, Raiders of the Lost Ark, The King's Speech, Dances with Wolves, Platoon, and more.
Three Stages Theater
www.folsomsymphony.com
(916) 357-6718

Folsom Lake Community Concert Association
New season begins in the fall at Three Stages Theater
www.flcca.org

STAGES – Northern California Performing Arts
www.stages-perfomingarts.org

Imprint Theater Company
www.imprinttheater.org

Sacramento Guitar Society
May 5 & 6 – Zaira Meneses; Mexican sensation famous for incredible touch and sensitivity
June 2 & 3 – William Kanengiser; founding member fo the Grammy-winning Los Angeles Guitar Quartet www.sacramentoguitarsociety.org

Murer House Foundation
Italian Cultural Heritage programming
For program schedule call 985-3250 or visit www.murerhouse.org

Folsom Garden Club
Public Workshops at 48 Natoma
www.folsomgarden.org or 985-0167

Folsom History Museum
The museum is home to a wonderful collection that chronicles the settlement and development of the Folsom area. See fascinating and educational exhibits and enjoy special events highlighting the Gold Rush era and Folsom's history.
www.folsomhistorymuseum.org