CITY MANAGER REPORTS:

City Manager Palmer spoke of the upcoming implementation of metered water billing. Speaking of water, he encouraged all Folsom residents to conserve water as much as possible. Mr. Palmer noted that several dangerous trees along Blue Ravine Road will be taken down remove the risk to trail users.

COUNCIL COMMENTS:

Council Member Starsky complimented the Police Department on their recent apprehension of a burglary suspect.

Council Member Sheldon clarified that he is basically the executive director of FAA a non-profit corporation, venturing to say that he is equal to anyone on the City Council as a business owner.

Council Member Morin followed up on water comments, noting the area is at about 33% of normal water capacity. He congratulated Sacramento Mayor Kevin Johnson for his work in retaining the Sacramento Kings in Sacramento. Mr. Morin also congratulated Green Acres on their opening.

Vice Mayor Miklos congratulated the Community Development Department for their work. He requested a City Council workshop to talk about budget structure, policies and direction. He said that since his comments at the last meeting, he has probably had at least 2 to 3 meetings each day with residents and businesses about the budget. He asked the City Manager to schedule a workshop for this type of discussion. Mr. Miklos requested the appointment of a two-person subcommittee of himself and the Mayor to meet with department heads regarding their budgets and then return to the full City Council with recommendations.

Mayor Howell invited residents to attend upcoming performances at Three Stages. She encouraged residents to drive carefully and explained the meaning behind the colors of traffic signs.
