

| Date                 | Type          | Location                                     | Summary                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|----------------------|---------------|----------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1/4/20197:35 PM  | Forgery/Fraud | 100 Block Manseau DrBeat 3        | Unknown suspect(s) fraudulently obtained money.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 1/4/20196:30 PM  | Arrest        | 700 Block Riley StBeat 2          | Celestina Ysais, 51, of Folsom was contacted at the location. Arrested for 647(f) PC and outstanding warrant. Booked at Sacramento County Jail.                                                                                                                                                        |
| 1/4/20193:50 PM  | Vandalism     | Greenback Ln/Madison AvBeat 1     | Unknown MA purposely slammed vehicle door into another vehicle.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 1/4/20193:25 PM  | Forgery/Fraud | 1600 Block Iron Point RdBeat 4    | Unknown suspect(s) used fraudulent bills in vending machine.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 1/4/20191:50 PM  | Grand Theft   | 100 Block S Lexington DrBeat 4    | Unknown suspect(s) stole a catalytic converter from vehicle.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 1/4/201911:50 AM | Vandalism     | 300 Block Willow Creek DrBeat 3   | Unknown suspect(s) spray painted graffiti on a block wall.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1/4/201911:30 AM | Arrest        | 900 Block Canyon Terrace LnBeat 1 | Aleksandr Prikhodo, 24, of Citrus Heights and Mark Yaslinskiy, 23, of Citrus Heights were contacted at the location. Prikhodo arrested for 459 PC, 182(A)(1) PC, 148(A)(1) PC, 466 PC and 1203.2 PC. Yaslinskiy arrested for 459 PC, 3056 PC, and 182(A)(1) PC. Both booked at Sacramento County Jail. |